

UUs of Color in the DC Area Building Community Together

When:

Kickoff Event

September 21st, 2:00-4:30pm.

Group Sessions begin October 5th

❖ First Sundays- Leaders of Color

Lay leaders of color who serve as Board members, RE teachers, Social Justice Committee members

❖ Second Sundays- Youth of Color

Youth ages 13 -18 years old, who identify as a person of color.

❖ Third Sundays-Multi-racial Families

At least one person identifies as UU and at least one person in the family identifies as a person of color.

How: Please register now at UUPOC

What: Meet with your peers in a facilitated gathering once a month.

Why: Spiritual and collegial support for families, youth and leaders of color active in our congregations. Help create a space and ministry serving the special needs of people of color. Bring your ideas and concerns. Together we can build community and strengthen our work in our larger Unitarian Universalist communities.

Where: Cedar Lane UU Church
Chalice House
9601 Cedar Lane
Bethesda, MD 20814

Childcare will be provided upon request for children 12 and younger.

Contact:

Rev. Archene Turner aturner@cedarlane.org

