Election season is upon us, and opinions and ideas are flowing. Are they? Are we really open to diversity of political discourse? Do we really encourage and accept differing political views in our own congregations? How can we understand our own political bias, be more effective in our understanding and conversations, and open our doors wide to intentionally extend our love and welcome to all?

Presenters: Rev. Anya Sammler-Michael, UU Congregation of Sterling
Rev. Scott Sammler-Michael, Accotink UU Church
Paul Roche, Board Chair, Sterling UU Church
