

Keeping Faith

Interfaith Prayer Service to Embrace the LGBT Communities

before the Supreme Court Marriage Equality Cases

Image credit: Wikimedia Commons

Sunday, April 26, 2015, 4:00pm

Congregation Etz Hayim

2920 Arlington Boulevard, Arlington

Parking on South Garfield Street

On April 28, the U.S. Supreme Court is scheduled to hear arguments whether same-sex couples should have the freedom to marry and if state anti-marriage laws should be struck down as unconstitutional.

Join with Northern Virginia faith communities to embrace the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender communities at this hopeful and vulnerable time.

www.facebook.com/POFEVNOVA

Sponsored by the Northern Virginia Network of People of Faith for Equality in Virginia. Founded in 2006, POFEV is an interfaith network of clergy and lay people working together for greater welcome and affirmation in faith communities and civil equality for LGBT Virginians.