

Pay to Play

Democracy's High Stakes

On Friday, January 16, 2015, at 7 p.m., Historic Takoma, located at 7328 Carroll Avenue, and the Maryland Committee to Amend will host a free showing of Pay2Play-Democracy's High Stakes, the second in our series about how unlimited cash in our elections is affecting our democracy.

PAY 2 PLAY follows filmmaker John Ennis' quest to find a way out from under the Pay 2 Play System, where Politicians reward their donors with even larger sums from the public treasury -- through contracts, tax cuts, and deregulation. Along the way, he journeys through high drama on the Ohio campaign trail, uncovers the secret history of the game Monopoly, and explores the underworld of L.A. street art on a humorous odyssey that reveals how much of a difference one person can make. PAY 2 PLAY: Democracy's High Stakes is a citizen's guide to taking back our democracy.

Join us for the free film and learn about the movement promoting a Constitutional Amendment which will state that corporations are not people and money is not speech. This critical issue affects all other progressive initiatives: education, social justice, economic justice, environmental action, peace, gun control, and more.

THE 2015 MARYLAND LEGISLATURE WILL BE DEBATING THE AMENDMENT. SENATOR RASKIN AND DELEGATE HIXSON WILL NEED OUR SUPPORT. www.marylandamend.org
